WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 7, 1881.

The new Cabinet was announced on Saturday and sent to the Senate for confirmation. As has been known for some months Senator Blaine is to be Secretary of State. Of all the appointments, I think this one meets with the most hearty approval from all Republicans, and insures to the State Department and to our Government in its dealings with the world a man thoroughly acquainted with the subtle art of diplomacy. His administration of the most important branch of the Government will doubtless be marked by increasing trade with other Nations, and the cultivation of feelings of amity.

Though the appointment of Senator Windom to the Treasury is a surprise to many, yet all unite in saying the long experience he has had as Chairman of the Senate Appropriation Committee, with his clear head and extensive knowledge of men and affairs, will insure to the country able and skillful management of its finances.

Senator Kirkwood, a Republican of the stalwart order, will take Secretary Schurz's place. This gentleman, long in public life and well known to this country, needs no word of commendation; all anxiety concerning the management of the Indians, Lands, Pensions, etc., while he remains in the Interior Department, can be put by. Senator Kirkwood has great intellect; his integrity has never been questioned, and he possesses all the qualities necessary for a safe and wise councillor. Best of all, he is a practical man.

Postmaster James, of New York City, is to be intrusted with the postal affairs of the Nation. He knows his duties, and will continue the improvements introduced by Postmaster-General Maynard.

Every Republican will indorse the appointment of Robert T. Lincoln to the Secretaryship of War. The selection reflects credit upon the head and heart of President Garfield.

As is usual, the man who knows the least about ships and sailors in the country, is placed in command of them, and General Garfield made no exception to the rule in appointing Judge Hunt, of Louisiana, Secretary of the Navy. Though, of course, the Judge don't know a ship from a row boat, he is a man of great legal ability and will conduct the affairs of his Department on a legal basis. He will soon learn the ropes, and under the tuition of the old salts at headquarters will soon be as much of an "Old Salt" as the late lamented American, Dick Thompson.

Were it not for the well known stalwart principles of the President, and the confidence in his ability and determination to live up to them in the administration of affairs, there would doubtless be some dissatisfaction at the selection of Wayne McVeigh for the Attorney-Generalship. But the President knows his own business best, and doubtless had his wits about him when he selected Mr. McVeigh from the mass of available material at hand.

The change from the immense crowd of last week to the quiet, and return to every day life of this, is striking. The decorations are being rapidly removed, and the brilliant uniforms of visiting military organizations are no longer seen. Though the crowd was much pleased with Washington, and know Washington was with the crowd, we are in a condition to enjoy the rest from excitement.

The Czar Assassinated.

After innumerable attempts to assassinate the Czar of Russia, the Nihilists accomplished their hellish designs on Sunday afternoon last. As the Czar was returning from a parade a glass bomb containing nitro-glycerine was exploded under his carriage, which was much damaged, but the Czar was not injured, but after he alighted and was drawing his fur cloak around him, and before the smoke had cleared away, another bomb was thrown from the opposite side of the street, exploding at his feet and fearfully mangled him. He was conveyed to the Winter Palace, where he died at half-past 4 o'clock. The assassin was promptly seized by the police, and he attempted to use a pistol, but was hustled off to jail. The tragedy created great excitement throughout the city, and throughout Europe. Grand Duke Nicholas has been proclaimed Emperor Alexander III. Both assassins have been arrested, and express a satisfaction with the result of their work.

President Garfield has nominated Stanley Matthews, of Ohio, for Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court; Don A. Purdee, of Louisiana, for U. S. Circuit Judge of the Fifth Judicial Circuit, and John W. Powell, of Illinois, Director of the U. S. Geological Survey. It will now be seen if the man who feels his oats to such an extent that he considers himself the great "I Am" of the Republican Party—Roscoe Conkling—can defeat his confirmation.

One hundred and twenty young men, who went to Denver to pick up mines in the streets, responded to an advertisement for a light cook. Were there any Bodieites among them?

Simon Rosenbaum has been appointed by Governor Perkins the new Police Judge of San Francisco.

DEATH OF THE CZAR.

The assassination of Alexander II, Czar of Russia, is a crime looked upon by our people as peculiarly atrocious, for the Czar was liberal in the administration of the Government—far in advance of his predecessors. During his reign of twenty-six years he instituted many reforms, the most important of which was the emancipation of millions of serfs. He fostered all branches of industries, and encouraged the introduction of the handwork of foreign skill. In all his undertakings he was firm in their accomplishment. He was one of the best friends, if not the best, the United States ever had. There ever existed the most cordial friendship between Russia and our Government; as a matter of fact, the secret history of the Rebellion, it is a noteworthy fact that France and England proposed that Russia join them and acknowledge the Independence of the Confederacy, and raise the blockade. The offer was promptly rejected; the Czar notified Secretary Seward, and shortly after a Russian fleet arrived at New York and remained a number of months—to assist the United States in case France and England acknowledged the Confederacy. Aside from the dictates of humanity, Russia is entitled to the sympathy of America, and every true American regrets the death of Alexander II. It is humiliating to our people and a disgrace to the Nation that our soil is polluted by meetings of men, so low and depraved as to uphold the murder of the Czar.

Gov. Bill's Signed

Governor Perkins signed on the 14th—the last day allowed by law—the following bills passed by the last Legislature:

Senate bill No. 187—To establish a Branch State Normal School at Los Angeles.

Senate bill No. 222—Amending Section 2,464 Political Code.

Senate bill No. 258—Amends Section 11, 17, 18 and 20, and repeals Section 3 of the act of 1880 to govern State Prisons.

Senate bill No. 92—To provide buildings for the Asylum for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

Senate bill 217—For bridges over navigable streams, etc.

Senate bill No. 139—To give Supervisors power to extend and complete all main intercepting sewers heretofore partially constructed.

Assembly bill No. 175—For additional ground for the State Insane Asylum at Napa.

Assembly bill No. 415—To promote Horticultural interests in California.

Assembly bill No. 475—Amending the Political Code.

Assembly bill No. 202—To provide a State Hospital for maimers.

Assembly bill No. 180—Amends Section 171 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Assembly bill No. 86—To purchase a steam launch for the Quarantine Officer at San Francisco.

The Governor refused to sign the following bills:

Senate bill No. 9—To amend the Penal Code, to prevent the sale of adulterated milk.

Senate bill No. 31—To provide for the removal of civil officers for the violation of official duties.

The two bills the Governor refused to sign refer to matters that interest the people of the whole State, particularly the milk bill, and we are curious to know his reasons for withholding his official signature, as they must have been of some merit to receive a two-third vote in each house.

ILLUSTRATED SCIENTIFIC NEWS.—This is the title of a monthly magazine published by Munn & Co., 37 Park Row, New York. It is a handsome publication, and each number contains thirty-two pages, full of engravings of novelties in science and the useful arts. The March number contains engravings of Captain Eads' proposed ship railway across the Isthmus, and a novel hydraulic railway locomotive, besides other illustrations. It contains many valuable recipes for artisans and housekeepers. It is a valuable work for $1.50 a year.

The Government has purchased the steam whaler Mary and Helen to search for the Jeannette in the Arctic seas. The vessel is at her wharf at San Francisco, where she will be turned over to the Government, and immediately fitted out for her perilous errand. After she has sailed it will be in order for the Government to look around for another vessel to search for the Mary and Helen.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE SALARY QUESTION.—The question as to whether our Supervisors are entitled to an unlimited salary of $6 a day and mileage under the new Constitution, as District Attorney Parker and the Attorney for the County, John A. McQuaid, say they are, or are only entitled to a salary and mileage, not to exceed $250 a year, will be settled by the Supreme Court within a short time, in a cause from Calaveras county regarding the salary of the Superintendent of Schools. The Superintendent claimed a salary of $185 a quarter—$740 per annum, which the Auditor of that county would not allow, on the grounds that the Superintendent was elected under the new Constitution, but took the office under the laws in force under the old Constitution, and that the said statute is still in force, the salary being $400 a year, and $100 for traveling expenses. The Superior Court of Calaveras county sustained the Auditor, and the Superintendent appealed to the Supreme Court, where it was argued and submitted on Saturday last. This is hardly a parallel case with that of our Supervisors, who were elected under the old Constitution and salary bill, which limited their pay to $250 a year; but during the past year they have drawn pay and mileage greatly in excess of that limit. Perhaps the Supreme Court will clear up this mystery—one of the thousand connected with our abominable Constitution.

TRIAL JURY.—List of names of jurors drawn for the balance of the January session of the Superior Court, in and for Mono County, drawn by order of Court, March 7th, 1881, to appear March 21st, 1881:

M. J. Wilson, J. B. Fort, David Hays, Reuben Barnes, David Cingade, A. J. McPhie, H. Christensen, Wm. Earle, Edward Kenney, Wm. McDonough, J. Owens, R. P. Foutte, Wm. Bradley, H. C. Blanchard, T. M. Glover, P. P. Mottinelli, Jas. Showers, Ben Eggleston, H. L. Leavitt, B. Goldberg, H. C. Holcher, Felix Babee, Barney McMahon, J. Milech, R. M. Forrest, P. Malloy, H. Donnell, A. Hantoon, S. Egwin, W. Boardman, Frank Masters, R. E. Hume, C. F. McKinney, A. Boucher, J. F. Byrne, J. Brauner, W. Wiley, S. R. Randall, J. Sturgeon, J. C. Swope, J. B. Perry, R. M. Aldridge, J. Lester, E. Tobin, M. Schwartz, J. H. Patterson, A. Herzberg and D. McFetridge.

DECEASED.—On Wednesday last, Leon M. Buel, died in Bodie of quick consumption, aged 36 years. The deceased was a native of Ohio, and, although quite young, he joined an Ohio regiment during the Rebellion and was, we believe, with Sherman in his memorable march. At the conclusion of the war he came to California and made a residence in Alpine county, of which he soon became County Clerk, holding the position ten years, during the best days of our sister county. He removed with his wife to Bodie in May last. Mr. Buel was gifted with a personal magnetism that drew to him the warm friendship of all with whom he became acquainted. He left a devoted wife to mourn his departure, and a mother, brother and sister at Santa Rosa. The funeral took place yesterday and was largely attended.

NEW CONSTABLES.—The Board of Supervisors met this morning and received a number of petitions for Constables of Bodie and Homer Townships. In the matter of the Homer Constable, "Deacon" Parkinson appeared before the Board and made a convincing argument in favor of the appointment of Nat. Fennell—who was thereupon appointed. The Board appointed J. A. Grant Constable of Bodie Township vice J. F. Kirgan, deceased.

MORE JURYMEN.—Judge Briggs yesterday ordered a venire for seventy-five jurymen for April 4th. It will be a glorious privilege and pleasure to sit as a juror in our new county palace, the Court House, and outsiders will soon be begging for an opportunity to come to Bridgeport, as children used to cry for "Sherman's" bonbons.

SADDLERY.—A. C. Raymond, of Bodie, has fitted up his harness and saddlery store in a handsome and tasteful style. His fine and well-assorted stock is of the best description, being principally of his own manufacture. We commend his establishment to the public.

ARRIVED.—The balance of the material for the new Court House arrived to-day, so we may now look for an early completion of it and its acceptance by the county. The furniture is on the way from San Francisco. The matting arrived some time ago, and the carpets came to-day.

EXPECTED.—Judge M. P. Wiggin, who has been spending the winter on the other side of the mountains, most of the time at Merced, where he presided over the Superior Court, was expected to return to Bridgeport this week, but he has not yet put in an appearance.

CLEANING UP.—Janitor Anderson has this week been cleaning up around the new Court House, clearing the grounds of sage brush and rubbish until he has made the surroundings quite respectable.

COLD NIGHTS.—The nights this week have been colder than usual, and the days have not been too sultry.

PERSONAL.—We yesterday had the pleasure of a call from Superintendent Wm. Irwin, of the boss mine, the Standard; Harry Buttin and Deputy Sheriff Grant, of Bodie; "Deacon" Parkinson, of Lundy, under escort of our townsmen, Jesse N. Summers and mine host, Andy Allen. Our Bodie friends looked happy over their temporary absence from the slums and pogonips of that town; and the "Deacon" was so happy at finding himself in a highly moral and Christian community, after living so long in Carson, Bodie, and Lundy.

COUNTY ROAD.—It being an open question as to where the county road is that the Bodieites are growing about, the Supervisors to-day appointed Joseph Kingsley, R. P. Foutte, A. J. Severe and L. A. Scowden as viewers to run, locate and survey county road leading from Bodie to Bridgeport, and report an estimate of the cost of change and opening, including the purchase of private land.

DEATH OF J. F. KIRGAN.—On Wednesday last Deputy Sheriff Kirgan died from the injuries received by the runaway of his horse. The deceased was a native of Kentucky, aged 53 years. He was a Pioneer, Sergeant-at-Arms of the first Constitutional Convention of California, and also of the Legislature at Vallejo. He was a veteran of the Mexican War. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

TO REPEAL.—The Supervisors this morning ordered the County Clerk to telegraph to Governor Perkins a request for him to include in his proclamation calling an extraordinary session of the Legislature, the subject of repealing the Act giving Mono county an additional Superior Judge. We presume the Governor will not consider the matter of sufficient importance to make a note of.

SUPERIOR COURT.—Department No. 1, Judge R. M. Briggs presiding, will convene on Monday next for the trial of H. Morton for grand larceny. The trial of W. McLaughlin, for an assault with a deadly weapon, has been set for Tuesday.

NEW JEWELRY.—L. Hollander, the Bodie jeweler, has just received a new stock of the latest styles of jewelry, which he will sell at reasonable prices, his motto being: "Live and let live." Give him a call.

To soften hard water.—Take two pounds of washing soda and one pound of common lime, and boil in five gallons of water for two or three hours; then stand it away to settle and dip off the clear water from the top and put it in a jug. Can be used for washing dishes or cleaning, and one teaspoonful in a boiler of clothes, put in after the water is hot, will lighten the clothes and soften the water, without injury to the hands or clothes.

Bleeding at the nose can be stopped by vigorous action of the jaws, as if in process of mastication. In the case of a child a wad of paper should be placed in the mouth and the child instructed to chew hard. It is the motion of the jaw that stops the flow of blood.

The inhalation of air charged with ammonia vapors, as a remedy for whooping cough, has been tried in France with success. One of the methods of application employed is boiling strong ammonia in the room where the patient is.

If you wish to polish up your furniture, mix equal parts of vinegar, spirits of turpentine and sweet oil in a bottle, and apply with a flannel cloth, rubbing afterwards with a chamois or piece of silk. It is better than a coat of varnish.

For chapped hands: One part of glycerine, four of Pond's extract of witch hazel, four of water; put in a bottle and shake well; it is ready for use immediately; it is well to shake thoroughly each time of using.

A certain cure for a felon is to wind a cloth loosely about the finger, leaving the end free. Pour in common gunpowder till the afflicted part is entirely covered. Keep the whole wet with strong spirits of camphor.

To remove ink and fruit stains: Ten grains oxalic acid in half-pint water; wet the article stained in hot water; apply to the top of the bottle, so that the liquid will reach it; then rinse it well.

To mend ivory, moisten thoroughly a small quantity of very finely powdered quicklime with white of egg to form a paste. Use at once, clamp the parts, and do not disturb for 24 hours.

Two drops of laudanum in half-a-teaspoonful of warm water, and dropped into the ears, will give immediate relief to persons troubled with neuralgia.

If a child has a bad earache, dip a plug of cotton wool in olive oil, warm it and place it in the ear. Wrap up the head and keep it out of draughts.

Hairbrushes are best cleaned by washing them in saleratus or soda water, which removes all the oil coating.
